JUDGING & ACCEPTANCE

A panel of art professionals will review the submitted representation of your work. The detailed description of your work will be made available to the jury and is considered highly important in the decision making process. Please describe your work carefully and submit quality representation of your work.

All artwork will be juried on the following criteria:

1. ORIGINALITY
2. QUALITY CRAFTSMANSHIP
3. SALABILITY
4. SKILLFUL USE OF MATERIALS.

All decisions by the jury will be final.

ACCEPTANCE

Applying artists will be notified by email/mail of the jurors' decisions no later than May 1, 2018. Artists wishing to receive notification of acceptance via mail rather than email must submit a business sized, self-addressed envelope with first class postage.

SPACE ASSIGNMENTS

- Space and check-in times will be mailed to artists with their information packet after June 15, 2018.
- Booth space is non-transferable and exhibitors are restricted to their designated 12' x 12' space.
- Artists must provide their own display units, tables, chairs and canopies. A canopy is recommended.

FESTIVAL RULES

- Artists who cancel without notifying festival coordinators or leave before the conclusion of the event will not be asked to participate in future festivals.
- Artists must provide Proof of Liability Insurance for the festival; vendors without insurance will not be allowed to set up for the festival. Please contact DHC Insurance at www.DHCINS.com or ACT Insurance at www.actinsurance.com to purchase liability insurance.
- All proceeds from sales go to the participating artists. Exhibitors are responsible for collecting and reporting their own South Dakota state sales tax of 7.5%. Forms will be mailed in booth assignment letter or placed in the packet you receive when checking in.
- A jury committee will screen booths throughout the festival. Work that you submitted during the application process must be representative of the work to be shown, otherwise artists will be asked to leave and no refunds will be given.
- Booths must stay open during the festival hours.
- NO PETS ALLOWED.
- Electricity is not available.
- No GAS generators are allowed.
- Yankton Area Arts assumes no liability in case of loss or damage to artwork. Insurance is the responsibility of the artists and craftsmen.
